Instructed by former US Army Special Forces personnel, this is "hands-down" the best US-based foreign weapons training available today!

- » OPERATOR-LEVEL FAMILIARIZATION
- » TACTICAL IMPLEMENTATION
- » LIVE-FIRE SHOOTING
- » BATTLEFIELD RECOVERY

Overview

Upon successful completion of the course, students will know how to identify, disassemble/assemble, maintain, load/fire/reduce stoppages and how to safely deal with or use the weapons on the battlefield. Students will also learn basic RPG marksmanship.

Non-standard weapon familiarization is an assumed task which most front-line soldiers have minimal or zero training on. This training is a must for rounding out the education of a soldier/special operations member.

Weapon Systems

The training is centered around a core list of 20 non-standard weapons.

Course Length

The training course is five days long. Each day follows the schedule of classroom time in the morning and range time in the afternoon.

Classroom Training

- » Features, nomenclature, peculiarities
- » Disassembly, assembly & function checks
- » Cleaning, inspection & basic maintenance
- » Malfunctions & misfire procedures

Live-Fire Training

- » Proper ammunition/magazine identification
- » Load, fire & reduce stoppages
- » Proper firing positions & techniques
- » Battlefield recovery

Custom Non-Standard Weapon Courses

Our Non-Standard Weapons course, customized to the needs of the unit. The duration of the course is client driven based upon:

- » Number of weapons to be instructed on
- » Amount of time the unit has
- » Unit/student budget
- » Competency level required upon completion

+ Optional Add-Ons

- » Instructor Development - Modules during the course to explain key teaching points.
- » Marksmanship - with the AK, PSL and RPG
- » Armorer Tasks - with various weapons

 Integrate our courses into your training cycle

Based on unit specific needs, we can work with you to integrate customized non-standard weapons training into your unit training or as a part of your recurring operator training courses. This helps maintain your proficiency through recurring training or for training new soldiers/sailors/airmen that need to become proficient.
